SANCTIONING OF PRIVATE GOLF EVENTS

Introduction:

1. The MGA, as the governing body for Amateur Golf in the country, is responsible for all matters concerning Golf Development and Golf Competitions.

Among its responsibilities are:

- i. As an affiliate of the IGF (International Golf Federation) uphold and maintain the Rules of Amateur Status.
- ii. To ensure the proper implementation and application of Golf Rules when conducting Golf Competitions.

Reasons for Sanctioning

2. Sports Development Act 1997.
 - 2.1. The Sports Development Act, Section 36, requires organizers of sporting events to apply for a 'License'.
 - 2.2. Event Organizers, sponsors or Host Clubs of private Competition should inform the 'Commissioner of Sports' of such intentions and apply for a 'License'. The purpose is to ensure that Organizers of these events have sufficient funds and the Technical support required for running these events.
 - 2.3. To ensure Organizers report any breach of Amateur Status.
 - 2.4. To implement the proper use of the applicable Handicaps of every participant, in order to ensure all participants play on a level playing field.
 - 2.5. Ensure that the competitions are conducted properly and adhere to 'The Terms and Conditions, Rules and Regulations and Tournament Set-up'.

Conditions for granting of MGA sanction:

3. Clubs holding MGA sanctioned competitions are required to comply with the following conditions: -

- 3.1. Golf rules applicable.

The competition must be conducted in accordance with the Rules of Golf issued by the R& A Rules Ltd.

- 3.2. Amateur status.

The Rules of Amateur Status issued by the R&A Rules Ltd must be complied with, particularly with regard to the retail value of the prizes awarded. (Maximum 500 pounds)

3.3. Caution – Forfeiture of amateur status.

3.3.1 Insert a statement in the 'Entry Form' stating that those who win prizes exceeding the limits as stated in the Rules of Amateur Status will be reported to the MGA.

3.3.2 Report any breach of Amateur Status, with particulars of the affected Golfers and the prizes received. (Value)

3.4. Referees.

There should be at least one qualified referee to adjudicate the Rules. Organizers may appoint qualified referees of their choice after notifying MGA or request MGA to appoint the referees. The list of Registered Referees are listed on our website.
